Which day should I attend?

The event has been split across two days, Sunday May 16 and Monday May 17. Sunday's event is primarily for the general public to attend. So, if you're a wine lover looking to taste some of SA's best drops then this day is for you.

Monday's event is about the wineries making business to business connections. You must have an ABN to register the Monday event, because we are trying to reserve this day for the hospitality industry and business professionals meeting the wineries to make professional connections and grow their networks.

Can I park at the event?
